"Theodore Roosevelt," says the Kansas City Star, "is for woman suffrage." Why not? He is for everything else anyone ever heard of.

A revision of the tariff downward, as proposed by the Democrat party, is more important than every question the Republican candidates for the presidency are cutting their throats over.

Let peace continue in the Democrat party. Anyone of the candidates is worth and well qualified to fill this, the most exalted position in the world—the Presidency of the United States.

It is easy to bamboozle the dear people with a well filled purse and an endless supply of hot air, but how different is the result when the same tactics are used with a National Committee.

"I am the Lincoln of the present," said Teddy. Ninety millions of people fail to see the resemblance. If he had said, "I am the Benedict Arnold of the Republican party and well thought of by the Kansas City Star," he would have told at least one truth in this campaign.

Theodore Roosevelt, once the only living ex-president of the United States, but now a howling, ranting demagogue without a visible sign of decency, honesty or truthfulness, has the unique distinction of having paid upwards of $5.00 a vote in a preferential primary. The money comes from the trusts and is used to debauch the common people. Oh, you dear people, how many crimes are committed in thy name!

Fellow Democrats don't be confused over this scrap going on in the Republican party. It may be a scheme of the trust to divert attention from the tariff tax. The issue in the coming campaign will be the tariff. The Republican party would rather face any other issue than this. The trusts are not spending millions of dollars on Roosevelt and Taft for nothing. They look upon it as an investment which will give them good returns.

Will S. Cowherd is today easily the strongest Democrat in the race for Governor, and if given the nomination his election is practically assured. The feeling that Mr. Cowherd is justly entitled to the nomination is growing more pronounced as time passes, and to this feeling may be added the fact that he is a man of fine education, well balanced judgment, courage, honest, capable and under all circumstances a thorough gentleman. He would, as Governor of Missouri, fill the office of chief executive with credit to himself and honor to the State. Of all the candidates for the nomination for Governor, not one is so well equipped to win the race as Mr. Cowherd. Four years ago we supported Mr. Cowherd, and though he went down to defeat, it was through no fault of his, and this year it will, we hope and believe, be our pleasure to assist not only in nominating, but in electing him.—The Glasgow Missourian.

YOUNG MAN KILLS SELF

Raymond Dysart, Aged 27, Died at His Own Hands.

Raymond Dysart, aged 27 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dysart, shot and mortally wounded himself Sunday evening at about 5:35 o'clock at the home of his parents on Fourth street. He lived but little over an hour, dying at 7:10 o'clock.

The people of the city were greatly shocked when the news was spread of this unfortunate occurrence. Dr. Miller and Dr. Dusenbury were hurriedly summoned and Dr. West was called from Peirce City where he had gone on a professional call and reached here before the young man passed away. Every effort known to medical skill was made to save the life of the young man but to no avail and he died without regaining consciousness. The bullet had entered the right side of the head near the temple and passed entirely through the brain coming out on the left side of the head. The bullet ranged upward and struck the wall in the room.

Raymond had indicated no intention at self-destruction and had remained about the house all day and had apparently been feeling in good spirits. The deed was committed with a 38-calibre revolver and Raymond had evidently picked up the gun from a sideboard drawer as he passed through the dining room and passing on into the kitchen where he fired the fatal shot.

He left a letter to his parents in which he stated that the deed was his own act, due perhaps to despondency. He told his parents that they treated him with every consideration that parents could show a son and that he alone was responsible for the act.

Raymond was born in Dover, Mo., and was 27 years of age, moving to Monette seventeen years ago with his parents. He was a good boy but of a peculiar disposition and grew despondent at times. He had always been a good worker at whatever he would undertake. He was honest, was well liked by all who knew him and his death is a severe shock to his family and friends. His parents and relatives have the sympathy of the entire city in their sorrow.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence on Fourth street.—Monette Times.
